Subject: Apology - Planning Discussion

Hi Martin / Nick,

It has been brought to my attention that you may have been unhappy with the wording in some of my correspondence regarding a call in issue some time ago.

Sadly I have not been in good health and so am only just catching up on my emails this week with hundreds to filter through.

Please take this email as an apology from me, i did not intend to cause any offence, and was simply trying to highlight just how inefficient the stroud planning department and policies seem to be at times.

Apologies again.

Kind regards,

Nick Housden
