CSLC.054 Police and Crime Commissioner Annual Update

The Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) congratulated Committee on continuing to hold an annual event. The PCC updated and provided an overview of their role as Deputy. The Deputy PCC advised the Gloucestershire Police and Crime Prevention Plan 2021-2025 had been published on 19 January 2022, it was developed from the PCC's manifesto commitments and through consultation events. The Deputy PCC outlined the 6 priorities within the plan which included:

- Creating safer Communities – tackling Anti-Social Behaviour
- Tackling violence against women and girls
- Strengthening the Constabulary
- Tackling the causes of crime
- Supporting victims and reducing reoffending
- Empowering local communities.

The Deputy PCC responded to Members questions on internal training to remove the culture of misogyny, what the Constabulary was doing to make Stroud safe for young women and girls and whether the crimes were reported as hate crimes, re-establishing the District Road Safety Liaison Groups, promoting/training Officers locally, financial support for community groups, county line drug gangs and knife crime, engagement with young people, mental health partnership working, statistics on number of killed and seriously injured from last few years from road accidents and whether the Rural Community Team still existed.

Councillor Prenter exited the Chamber at 7.55pm
